

Community Spotlight

ANTHONY WALSH

Associate Professor University of Fukuchiyama

Willingness to Communicate

-Japanese students before and after short-term study abroad-

This presentation explores students' willingness to communicate (WTC) and how chaperones can maximise the benefits of short-term study abroad programmes. The study is set in Melbourne, Australia, where students from the University of Fukuchiyama attended either General English or English for Academic Purposes at the Deakin University English Language Institute (DUELI).

25th MAY

13:00 JST

 Google Meet

JALT members FREE

¥1,000 for 1-day membership

Google Meet joining info

@kyoto.jalt.org

